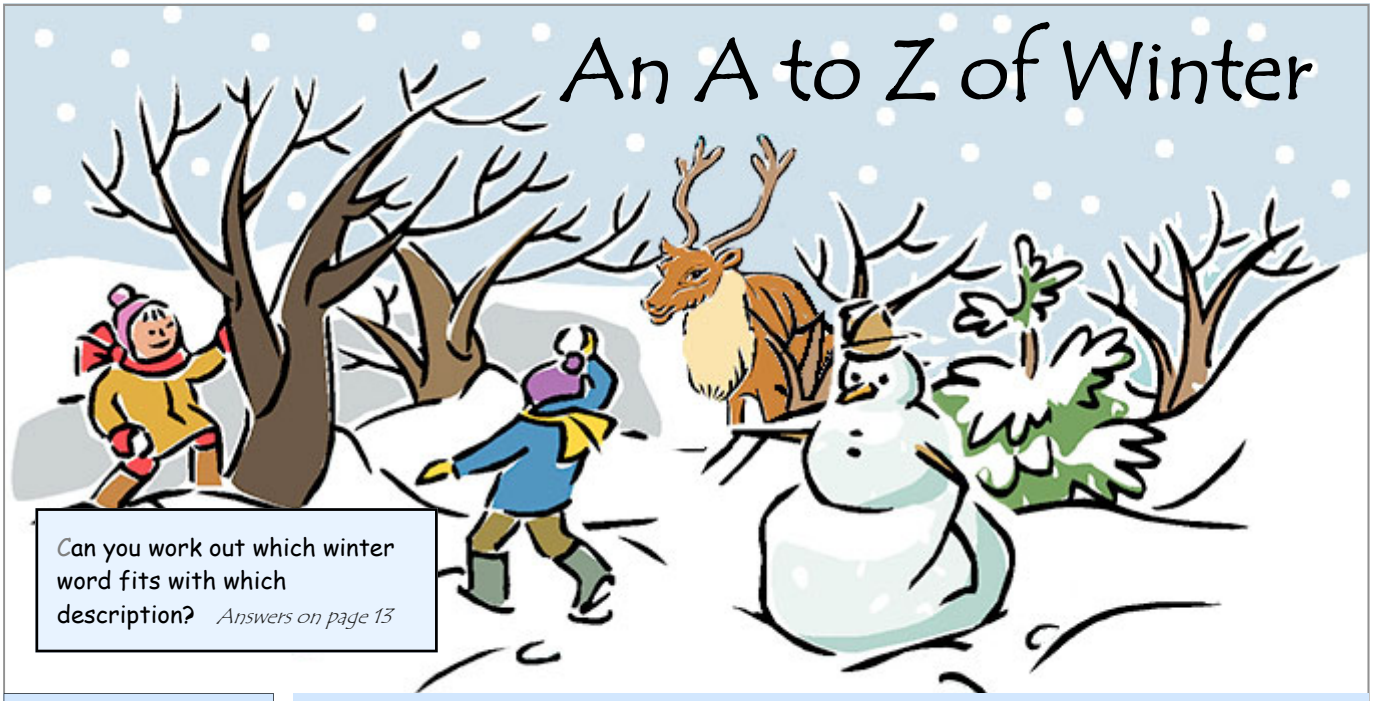
A to Z of Winter



Arctic winds	_____	1. Migrating birds often make long ones of these.
Brussels sprouts	_____	2. This keeps some animals warm in winter.
Cone	_____	3. A famous one of these has a red nose!
December	_____	4. Cold air coming from the north.
Evergreen	_____	5. These can be fed to birds when the weather is cold.
Fur	_____	6. A tool for cutting firewood.
Gusts	_____	7. An instrument for measuring temperature.
Hibernation	_____	8. The temperature has to reach this for water to freeze.
Ice	_____	9. Trees that lose these in winter as deciduous.
Journey	_____	10. On windy days, there can be strong ones of these.
Kittiwake	_____	11. The Snowy one of these has white feathers.
Leaves	_____	12. In Ireland, this is on the 21st or 22nd December.
Mountains	_____	13. A small rodent that does not hibernate in winter.
Nuts	_____	14. This seabird spends the winter out on the ocean.
Owl	_____	15. A tree that never loses its leaves.
Polar bear	_____	16. Frozen water.
Queen	_____	17. Every snowflake is this.
Reindeer	_____	18. Some animals spend the winter in this deep sleep.
Shortest day	_____	19. In winter, this is often cold, wet and windy.
Thermometer	_____	20. This draws to a close in the middle of winter.
Unique	_____	21. A large white animal from the Arctic
Vole	_____	22. One of the winter months.
Weather	_____	23. Worker bees help keep this bee warm in winter.
aXe	_____	24. The tops of these are often covered in snow in winter.
Year	_____	25. The hard, dried fruit of a pine or fir tree.
Zero	_____	26. A small green vegetable – part of the cabbage family.

© 2018 Sherkin Island Marine Station & its licensors. All rights reserved.